In addition to or in lieu of the foregoing, as mutually agreed to by the Parties, the Parties may initially submit the dispute to nonbinding mediation to be conducted by a single mediator mutually acceptable to the Parties. If the Parties agree to submit the dispute to mediation, the Parties will share equally the cost of the mediator. If the dispute is not resolved within thirty (30) days of the commencement of informal efforts (including mediation) under this Section, if a Party desires to seek resolution of the dispute, the Party shall submit the dispute to binding arbitration to be heard before a single arbitrator mutually agreeable to the Parties. If the Parties cannot agree on a single arbitrator, each Party shall select one arbitrator and both arbitrators shall then select a third. The third arbitrator so selected shall arbitrate said dispute. The arbitration shall be governed by the rules of the American Arbitration Association then in force and effect.
